ART NOSEWORTHY NAMED TO Q.U.A.A.
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CANADIAN REPRESENTATIVE TO THE C.A.B.M.A.

Art Noseworthy, business manager for Concordia University's Department of Physical Education and Athletics, has been named to the Board of Directors of the revamped Quebec University Athletic Association. Mr. Noseworthy who was also named chairman of the Recreational Division of the Q.U.A.A., has a one year appointment to the Board.

The Board of Directors is composed of a three man executive and the chairmen of the nine divisions. Art's division is responsible for upgrading the recreational programs in member schools.

Earlier this summer, Mr. Noseworthy was selected as the Canadian representative of the College Athletic Business Managers Association (CABMA). As such he is the liaison person for Canadian members and will have voting power in the annual convention. The C.A.B.M.A. discusses problems common to college athletics and the various solutions to such problems.

Noseworthy has worked at Loyola/Concordia for the past 11 years, seven of them with the Athletic Department. He has also coached minor hockey in his hometown of Chateauguay, directing the Bantam "B" Flames to a league championship last year.
